

Mingle at the Mansion: Brain Builder 2014

March 25, 2014 · by Melissa Haak · in Donate, Give Back

Lake County is a large area, filled with lots of kids. However if you want to visit a quality children's museum you need to head to Glenview (Kohl Children's Museum) or Milwaukee or visit smaller ones with more limited hours. Mompreneurs Kathy Goers and Alison Price have been tirelessly campaigning since 2004 to build a museum in Lake County. We shared with you the exciting news that they have secured a location!

Now is the chance for us, the parent community of Lake County, to come together and make this a reality. They are in the middle of a huge capital campaign to get the funds to make the creative plans of Bill Greaves (Architects iN Design) a reality.

You can help by supporting the Brain Builder event in several ways:

Be a Sponsor:

The committee is currently offering multiple sponsorship opportunities. You would be joining businesses such as Britt Anderson Photography, The Village of Lake Villa, Bauer's Catering, Cost per Copy Consultants, and of course Little Lake County!

Donate Auction Items: If you own a business, or have season passes to local teams, or other items that you think would be of value please consider donating to the silent auction.

Auction Item from 2013: Derrick Rose Simeon Jersey

Buy tickets

If you aren't able to do any of the above you can still help and have a great evening of fun! Tickets are $50 each or $180 for groups of 4 (tables are available as well, 10 for $400). It's a perfect date night with live music from Memory Makers Entertainment, appetizers, silent auction, raffles and dessert.

We had a great time last year and are so proud to sponsor them again. If we (the parents of Lake County) want to have quality sources of education and entertainment for our children we have to everything we can to support them.

You can donate to the capital campaign with monetary donations or items needed for exhibits, see their Donations/Wishlist for more details.

Little Lake County is a proud media sponsor of Mingle at the Mansion. All thoughts and opinions are my own.

Article by Melissa Haak

Melissa Haak has written 1453 post in this blog.

Melissa is mom to 4. She used to dream of traveling the world, now she dreams of a clean kitchen. She writes about all the sticky bits of motherhood at Peanut Butter in my Hair, and hides from her children on Twitter. She can be found on most social media sites as @PBInmyHair.